1. The Firm

GND Advisory (hereinafter referred to as the Company) is an autonomous advisory firm registered in the Republic of Lithuania. The records of the Company are kept at the State Enterprise Centre of Registers.<sup>1</sup> GND Advisory and each of its majority-owned subsidiaries and affiliated entities (together with the Company hereinafter referred to as GND) conducts its operations in compliance with the EU and Lithuanian Law, Regulations, and its internal Code of Conduct.

2. Introduction

GND aims at creating and maintaining an open, safe, welcoming, community-centred environment that nurtures employees' diversity and ensures equal opportunities for everyone. Equal opportunities — implementation of human rights enshrined in international human and civil rights documents and laws of the Republic of Lithuania, equal treatment of employees regardless of their gender, sex, race, nationality, language, origin, social status, religion, faith, belief or opinion, age, sexual orientation, disability, ethnicity, membership of a political party or association, or intention to have a child (children). Gender Equality Plan (hereinafter referred to as Plan) refers to gender equality, which is understood as equal rights, responsibilities and opportunities of all genders, guided by the values of openness, integrity, excellence and sustainability, and aims for GND to be an attractive place to work and to provide excellent working conditions for all employees.

The Plan sets specific objectives and measures for implementing gender equality, and procedures for monitoring and evaluation. The Plan includes objectives and measures in the following areas:

- work-life balance and organisational culture;
- gender balance in leadership and decision-making;
- gender equality in recruitment and career progression;
- measures against gender-based violence including sexual harassment.

GND's Gender Equality Plan aims to demonstrate and consolidate GND's long-term commitment to gender equality and to ensure that the principles articulated in the Plan are maintained and further developed. This Plan is intended for the period 2022-2025 and will be updated as necessary based on the results of monitoring and assessment of its implementation.
